This Week at CLS

Thank you, grandparents and parents! Friday's Academic Festival celebrated these special people, beginning with a chapel service, then displaying learning including a readers' theater production of O. Henry's "A Retrieved Reformation" (7-8) and historical figure presentations (5-6) to science, social studies and art projects by K-4 and songs sung by K-8 and the Fine Arts Festival Choir! Bowling matches, track, piano and band practices and K-4 praising our Savior on Sunday rounded out the week! Meanwhile, down the hall...

Jesus returns to heaven, rhyming fun, Llama Llama books (preschool);

Peter and John heal a lame man, The Drag-onling, naming/writing any number to 100 (K); caterpillar/butterfly observation journals, possessive pronouns, two/three dimensional shapes (1); finishing national monument posters, "Search for the Magic Lake" readers' theater, adverbs, prepositions (2); perimeter, area, adverbs, invertebrates, From the Top radio show (3-4); Love That Dog (a novel in poem form), dividing decimals, percents (5-6); wrapping up proportions and ratios (Math 7); confirmation preparations, poetry journals, noun clauses, the history of western music (7-8)!

Thank you for your support of Christian education!
